It appears there might have been a misunderstanding in the instructions. The email recipients you've mentioned (Google, Philip Adesokan via LinkedIn, Masters' Union) seem like separate entities and not "Tillu" as requested in your initial message. Therefore, I will draft emails targeted at the provided individuals instead.

Email 1: Invitation to Google DeepMind Accelerator

Subject: Invitation for Google DeepMind Accelerator: AI for the Planet (APAC)

To: varshith@example.com

From: [No Reply] <no-reply-eventsatgoogle@google.com>

Hello Varshith,

We are inviting applications for Google DeepMind Accelerator: AI for the Planet in APAC. This three-month, equity-free program supports APAC-based AI startups, researchers, and organizations to work on high-impact projects that tackle real-world challenges.

We would appreciate it if you could review this opportunity further and respond with your interest or any questions you may have.

Best regards,

The Google DeepMind Team
